Upper Lake-Killarney. The tourist who emerges from the Gap of Dunloe into the Black Valley finds himself finally on the shores of the Upper Lake, the smaller but not the least beautiful of Killarney's two largest lakes. It is a lovely stretch of water 430 acres in extent and (at its highest) level is 3 miles in length. High mountains rise precipitously from the water's edge and form a most beautiful series of pictures
